

Objective

Apply my wealth of experience in business intelligence, financial acumen and problem solving within a municipal setting.

Experience

- 2011 - Present Consultant Supply Chain Consultants
- Build and use SQL, C#, .Net and Excel macro tools to provide reporting and planning capabilities for multi-billion dollar chemical companies.
 - Created monitoring tool to improve efficiency in bulk transport optimization.
- 2010 - Present Financial Manager Vineyard Church
- Provide financial updates to senior staff, maintain books in accordance with GAAP principles and applicable laws governing 501(c)(3) organizations..
 - Used relational database to develop a package of analytical reporting tools that were sold to other churches around the country.
- 2009 - Present Co-Founder MealShare.org
- Created an online software application using dynamically generated web content.
 - Oversaw product development lifecycle and integration of business logic.
 - Managed all financial operations of the company, including negotiating contracts with vendors and subcontractors.
- 2008 Graduate Internships U. Pennsylvania
- Audited City of Philadelphia's Division of Technology to enhance internal data collection and metric analysis to improve department's strategic focus.
 - Outlined steps for creating an equity fund aimed at retaining affordable rental stock in gentrifying neighborhoods.
 - Developed an econometric model to forecast the City of Philadelphia's tax base. Researched user-fee strategies for the city's recycling and solid waste departments.

Education

- 2007-2009 University of Pennsylvania Philadelphia, PA
- Master of Government Administration. Emphasis in public finance, economic development, as well as electives through Wharton's MBA offerings.
- 1998-2003 University of Cincinnati Cincinnati, OH
- Bachelor of Urban Planning. 15 credit hours of economics. Collaborated with the Niehoff Studio's international research arm on comparative food systems while studying abroad at the Universiteit van Amsterdam.

Awards & Recognition

- 2010 – Graphic résumé included in Prince George County, Maryland high school business class curriculum for the transmission of quantitative information.
- 2008 – United Nations ATHGO Summit Presidential Scholarship recipient for contributions to the field of microfinance in the developing world.
- 2007 – Offered the Dodd Fellowship at the Thomas Jefferson Program in Public Policy.
- 2005 – City of Frankfort Planning Department Employee of the Year.
- 2003 – Outstanding Student of the undergraduate class of 2003.
- 2003 – Multiple awards for groundbreaking work incorporating emerging technology in civic engagement for Hamilton County's Community COMPASS project.

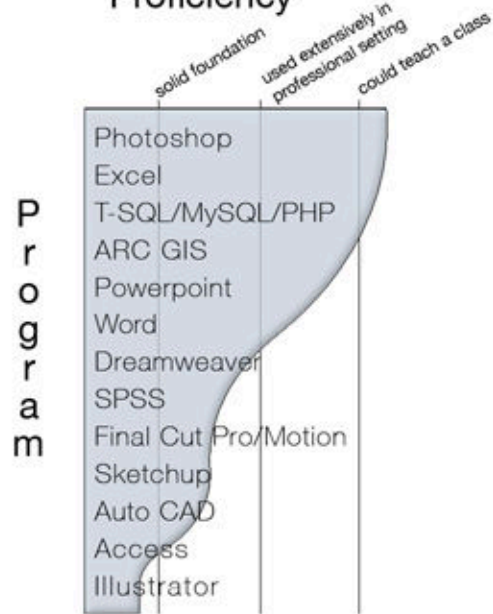

Justin Evilsizor

Professional Experience

215. 921. 4375

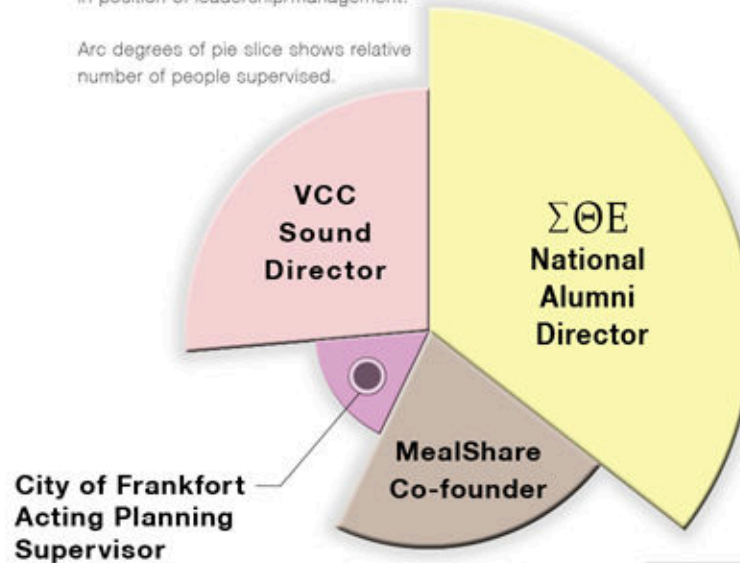

www.cv-industries.com

Proficiency

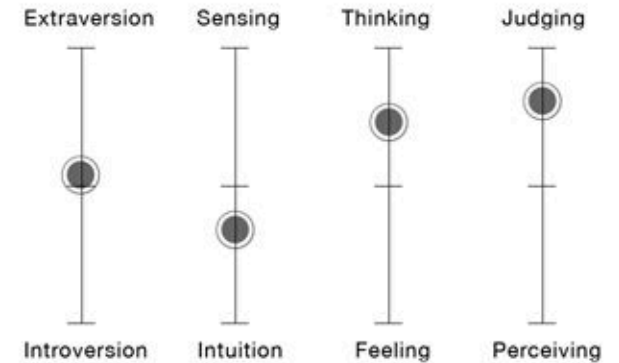

Leadership Experience

Area of pie slice shows length of time in position of leadership/management.
Arc degrees of pie slice shows relative number of people supervised.

Fieldmarshal

Myers-Briggs Type Indicator

Employment

